LOOKBOOK AW'19
JUST WHITE SHIRTS

Say hello to clothes that keep the pace with women on the move, who have things to do, people to meet, and places to go. Because in this fast-paced world, fashion needs to keep up.

TBD wasn't born on a whim. We saw a gap in the market for chic, yet comfortable clothing. Whether it's fit, function, comfort, or climate; there's nothing that a little bit of science and a lot of design thinking can't resolve. And so, we listened.

Countless trials, focus groups, and fittings later, TBD pieces are always evolving - with every outfit an improved version of itself. More comfortable. More practical. And always on-point.

We hope you love this special segment of our launch collection 'Just White Shirts'. Full of flattering silhouettes, elegant designs, and luxe fabrics, our five shirts are designed to cater to every event in your diary. We promise that each piece feels just as it looks - Sharp. Practical. Clean.
